25 Upper-Body + 25 Lower-Body Dynamic Warm-Up Movements

Designed as a movement-preparation library for gym, home, and coaching programs. Most exercises are dynamic mobility or activation drills rather than long static stretches. Choose 5-10 movements that match the workout, client mobility, training level, and joint tolerance.

Practical use: A general warm-up can begin with 3-5 minutes of easy movement, followed by selected mobility/activation drills, then lighter rehearsal sets of the main exercise.
